Policy: SOBI membership for OBA Ltd Instructor members

At a meeting of Directors on 14 August 2020, the Directors resolved to accept this policy:

As of 1st September 2020 Instructor Members of Ortho-Bionomy Australia Ltd. (Australian residents) are no longer required to maintain membership of the Society of Ortho-Bionomy International to continue to be registered instructors with OBA. The classes they teach from the curriculum of OBA's Practitioner, Advanced Practitioner and Instructor programs will be recognised as accredited training in these programs for as long as they abide by OBA's Code of Ethics and Code of Conduct for Instructors and while they remain 'in good standing' members of OBA, meeting all the relevant membership criteria as determined by the Board of Directors.
